Privacy Notice

In accordance with the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act, patients of Reconstructive Orthopaedics of Central Florida (ROC) are entitled to and afforded the rights to privacy regarding their health-related information as set forth under applicable law. A patient's Protected Health Information ("PHI") may only be released as authorized by this law. ROC will strive to ensure that patient information is used only for purposes authorized by the patient, including but not limited to patient treatment and payment operations, lawful subpoenas, and as otherwise required by law. Upon request we can provide you with a complete copy of our Privacy Policies. Additionally, upon providing reasonable advance notice, patients have a right to review their medical records and furnish comments to their records during normal business hours. In addition, patients have the right to obtain information regarding entities to which Protected Health Information has been provided. Patients also have the right to be informed of any breach of their unprotected PHI; communicated with for marketing only if authorized by the patient; and able to decline having PHI delivered to health insurers if the patient pays for services in full without submitting a claim. If you have any concerns or wish to file a complaint, please contact Administration at Reconstructive Orthopaedics of Central Florida at 352-456-0220.
